This stunning four-bedroom, five-bathroom mews-style home is set in an exclusive location within 56 acres of historic parkland, once home to the horses of Queen Elizabeth II. As you step through the breathtaking internal courtyard, you are welcomed into a spacious, open-plan hallway that leads to an open plan dining/living area. A striking floor-to-ceiling wine wall adds a touch of royalty, making this the ideal space for entertaining guests in style.

The ground floor also features a bright and airy kitchen, beautifully appointed with light worktops and cabinetry that enhance the sense of space. Adjacent to the kitchen is a dedicated study, perfect for working from home or personal projects.

Upstairs, the second floor is home to the spacious master suite and three additional bedrooms, each offering their own ensuite and custom-fitted wardrobes. The master ensuite is a true retreat, featuring a luxurious grand bathtub and a double "his and hers" vanity.

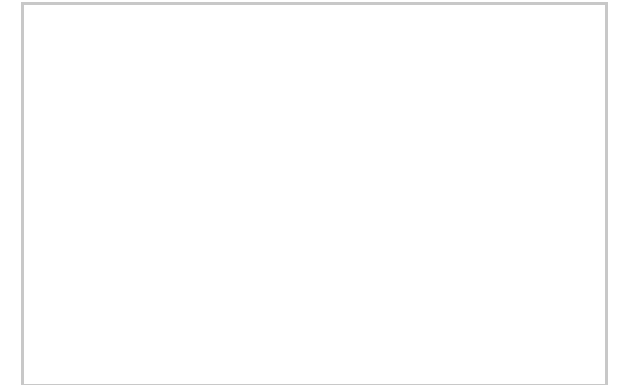

This is the perfect opportunity to live within history.
